Spells have little affect on Atlas, so concentrate only on the use of your weapons. You should use "Parry", occasionally using the defense spell "Increase" to build up the defense power of his companions, and using the restore spell "Healmore" for a companion very low on HPs. The Princess should also use "Parry", occasionally using the restore spell "Healall" for a companion with decreased HPs.				 250 240 1530 Bazuzu's attack and defense powers are less than Atlas', but Bazuzu has strong attack spells such as "Exploret" and "Sacrifice" and the strongest restore spell, "Healall". In battling Bazuzu, you must use both weapons and spells. You should use weapons; the Prince should use "Parry" in combination with the "Healall" spell for a companion with decreased HPs. The Princess should use the "Exploret" spell on Bazuzu and the "Healall" spell for a companion with low HPs. "Stopspell" will have no affect on Bazuzu.				 250 255 2200 Zarlox has the strongest attack and defense powers of the three. You should use weapons. The Prince should use "Increase" and "Healmore" spells. The Princess should use the "Defense" spell repeatedly to weaken the defensive power of Zarlox, and the "Healmore" spell to revive a companion having low HPs. Zarlox will use the "Increase" spell to increase his defensive power, so using the "Defense" spell repeatedly against him is vital.
